Abercorn Conference Centre

A warm welcome, professional facilities and state of the art technology can all be found at the Abercorn Conference Centre.

Conveniently located in the grounds of Reid Kerr College, with dedicated private parking, this historic business venue is within easy reach of Paisley town centre. Rail, air, coach and motorway connections are all close to hand ensuring easy access to the facilities.

The Abercorn Conference Centre offers a wide range of meeting and conference facilities, whether your requirements are for a training venue, seminars, conferences, lectures, small business meetings, or just time out from your current environment. Outstanding hospitality and quality audio visual equipment combined with staff dedicated to delivering the highest level of service ensures the excellent standards and reputation of this premier business facility.

The variety of room facilities on offer can provide accommodation for large and small events with a layout to suit your needs and competitive delegate and room rates.

In addition to the range of rooms, the venue also offers computing suites, available with or without trainers, and the College can provide a number of bespoke training events and workshops tailored to meet you business needs.
